10.1 The Administration Office may announce additional holidays or compensating instructional days. A holiday does not automatically extend an academic deadline unless the corresponding notice says so.

11. Attendance and make-up classes

11.1 Attendance is recorded from the first scheduled instructional day, including during registration correction.

11.2 A department may schedule a make-up class on a working Saturday or another announced date when instruction is lost to an emergency closure.

11.3 A make-up session counts toward attendance when announced at least twenty-four hours in advance, except where a shorter period is necessary after an emergency.

12. Deadline interpretation

12.1 An online deadline ends at 5:00 p.m. local time unless the relevant notice states another time.

12.2 When an office submission deadline falls on an unexpected closure day, submission is due by 12:00 noon on the next working day unless an electronic submission remains available.

12.3 Students are responsible for checking amendments issued through official Institute channels.

13. Amendment history

13.1 Version 1.0 was approved on 20 June 2025.

13.2 Version 1.1, effective 1 July 2025, clarified the Spring result date and Summer registration period without changing teaching weeks.
